

A New Book from Noel Davis

becoming intimate with our radiant self

It is now 26 years since the publication of 'Heart Gone Walkabout' that went into two reprints in two years. The publication of 'Heart Coming Home' completes a circle.

As Noel writes – there's a time to go walkabout, a time for seeking and a time to come home.

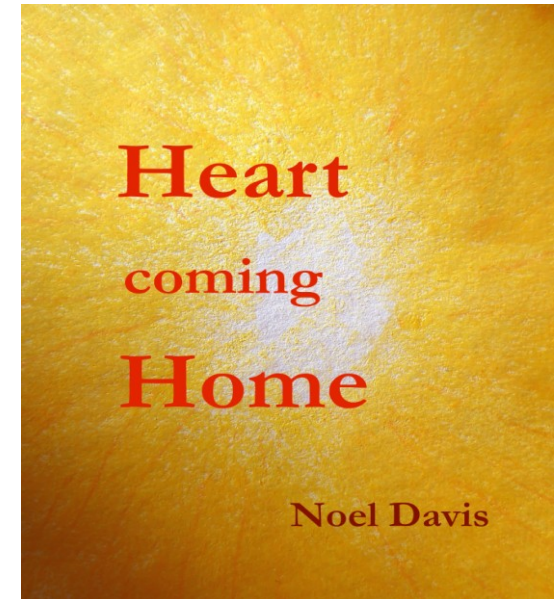

The book comes accompanied by the distinctive and fine drawings of landscape designer Catherine Muller from Tilba. Her drawings reflect her intimacy with the Australian landscape, flora and fauna.

Art walks with word throughout the book.

As in past publications (this is the 8th in the series) this volume offers poetic reflections on life's journey through the light and dark of life lived with passion and trust in the all pervading Spirit of Light and Love. It affirms commitment to our inner work to grow in freedom and love that find expression in heart felt action.

As Noel writes –
Life becomes a journey of heart, its intimacy and immensity.
It is coming to acknowledge and love our radiant self.

Come join us at a launch of this new and inspiring publication.
